RETURN OF WESTERN TOURISTS

Joseph G. Bland, Dr. P. H. Harriman and Rev. W. A.
Keefe arrive Home from Pacific Coast—Trip One of a Lifetime—Grand time from Start to Finish—Letter Tells of San Francisco Visit.

On Thursday afternoon the local delegation, Joseph G. Bland and guests, Dr. P. H. Harriman and Rev. W. A.
Keefe, returned from their trip to the Pacific coast, where they had gone on New England delegation to attend the Hotel Men's Benefit association convention at Los Angeles. They arrived in Boston Thursday morning at 10.30, after Keefe having left them at Greenfield, Mass. to go to Hartford for the consecration of Bishop Nolan.
They arrived here at 4.45 o'clock, glad to get back, but having had the time of their trip, the entertainment throughout being most lavish. Wherever they stopped no expense was spared in entertaining the delegation, and dinners and special entertainments and side trips were among the regular features at nearly every place. The country was found a most beautiful one, and they had the best opportunities for seeing the special attractions in each city and particularly the best hotels of the country. As they traveled and mingled with the other delegation badges were accumulated so that they were well decorated before the close.

A feature which was prominent all through the west was the boosting which the people were continually doing. In the city of Albuquerque, next to the greeting, the first thing said in to the delegation was "Welcome to Albuquerque." This is characteristic of the people in all the western cities, everyone is booming his town, showing up its best points and getting as far as possible from the so-called "knocking" habit.
At San Francisco at the Palace hotel the large ball room was made over into a western mining camp with bar-gambing games and boxing ring all working. This entertainment was arranged at a cost of $2,500.

The delegates were all the men with the trip and entertainment. It couldn't have been improved. All show the benefits of the trip in healthy complexions, more weight and western enthusiasm, but with the same joyful, smiling countenances.

Fine Time in 'Frisco.
Mrs. Annie Tarrant Kelly of San Francisco, daughter of Nicholas Tarrant of this city, writes The Bulletin as follows regarding the visit of the Hotel Men's delegation to that city, which was of particular interest because of the three Norwich men in the delegation.

The Norwich delegation attending the Hotel Men's convention received high honor and distinction while in San Francisco this week, by having one of its members selected for responding in the name of the entire New England delegation to the toast of Our Hosts in San Francisco.

Rev. Father Keefe of Norwich was the speaker and the compliments given him by his fellow travelers and the press notices in the local papers prove how well he blended the east and west in the great union under the starry banner.

The New England delegation was the peer of any, and the Norwich contingent everywhere were like Athos, Por-thos and Aramis of heroic days, the doers of knightly courtesies and the champions of New England glory and its patriotic traditions. They arrived here Monday evening April 13,

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES

AT SOUTH WINDHAM.

Many Are Attending and Several Conversions Have Been Made.

Unusually large attendances and interesting and profitable meetings have been the rule thus far this week at the South Windham Congregational church, where Rev. R. C. Miller is successfully carrying on a two weeks' evangelistic campaign. Several more have been led to start upon the Christian life and much encouragement has been given the evangelist and those assisting him.

Mr. Miller preached Thursday evening upon Judgment Day Excuses, and a large congregation seemed impressed with his forceful interpretation of the scripture in regard to the last day. He took up some of the excuses that men offer today for not following the life of a Christian, and he transferred them to the day of judgment, showing their instability and shallowness in a strong light. The recitation A Starless Crown was effectively given by Mrs. M. W. Golden.

A special woman's meeting is to be held this (Friday) afternoon at three o'clock at which Mr. Miller will speak on a subject of importance to mothers and wives.

On Saturday evening there will be a meeting for men and Mr. Miller's address will be upon A Great Life Problem Solved.

The evangelistic meetings close Sunday.

RECEPTION TO DR. COOTE.

Given at Burnside Parsonage With Many Present.

Rev. Dr. James Coote, the new minister of the Burnside Methodist church, formerly of this city, and his family were tendered a reception at the parsonage Wednesday evening by the parishioners of the church. The attendance was over 100. The Rev. Mr. Coote and wife were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burnham, Mr. and Mrs.
William S. Jarman and Mr. and Mrs.
Frank C. Gould. During the evening lunch was served. The address of welcome in behalf of the parishioners, citizens and the community at large was given by James S. Forbes. Remarks were also made by William S.
Jarman and the Rev. William C. Prentiss. Mr. King of Thompsonville, a former parishioner of the Rev. Mr. Coote, was present and made remarks. Solos were rendered by Mrs. J. V. Freeman, Mrs. Winnie Davis and Mrs. Burt.

Y. W. C. T. U. Meeting.

At the regular meeting of the Anna M. Herr Y. W. C. T. U. Tuesday evening it was voted to hold a social in the latter part of May. An interesting report was read by Miss Minnie Schulman of the meeting recently held at the Y. M. C. A.

and Tuesday, not content with mother earth, they needs must soar into the clouds, so they journeyed to the top of Mountain Tamapala, and lo! the heavens came down, to do them courtesy, and wrapped them in a cloak of opal fog.

Wednesday, a most beautiful day, their host took the visitors and their friends, numbering about 1,200, in autos on a sight seeing trip, in and about the city, through the park, to the Pacific ocean, and to our famous Seal rocks, with their seals; our historic and storied Cliff house, thence and through the United States military reservation and fortifications of Fresidio.

After the drive, all partook of an elegant luncheon at the costly Fairmont hotel and when full justice was done to the eatables and beverages, the officer in charge of the day's outing came to Father Keefe and said he had been selected to respond in the name of the New England delegation to the toast, "Our Hosts in San Francisco." Brierly than limited as was the notice, the gentleman won his hearers from the start and at the conclusion of his remarks the whole 1,200 arose and sang America. His theme followed the thought of the day previous, being Patriots' day in New England, and having traveled from historic New England over the lands of the patriots and frontiersmen over the trail of the missionary, the trail of Santa Fe (Holy Faith), into beautiful southern California, then to northern California, with its achievements in face of overwhelming disaster, and saying that as they had left their New England they had come to their California, that the glories of each belonged to all, that all were one in the possession of a marvelous heritage left to all by glorious and heroic forefathers on both sides of the continent.
The speech was short, but short speeches live long and this will live long in the memory of all who heard it.

Old men, young men, G. A. R. veterans and Mexican war veterans thanked him for the patriotic utterances.

That evening they feasted at the most unique and elegant banquet ever served in our famous Palace hotel, as follows regarding the visit of the Hotel Men's delegation to that city,
delegation.
